HAST THOU BEEN TEMPTED!

Hast thou been tempted so,
O cold, proud heart?

Hast fought the tempter well, and know
His language sweet to overthrow?

Was it thy will, or circumstance
That checked his pitiless advance?

Hast thou been tempted so,
O cold, proud heart?

Hast thou been strong, where he was weak?
Mayhap thine armor yet may break?

Where he is firm, and show thee where Corruption fosters unaware.

Hast thou been tempted so,
O cold, proud heart?

Or hath thy happy lot insured
The safety, wherein he allured?

Would'nt he have known the want
Thy sin, to shame, to prison gyles.

Hast thou been tempted so,
O cold, proud heart?

Thank God thou still art pure, but lend
Thy stronger hand in kindness, friend?

Crush not the fallen with disdain,
But help him back to hope again.

Mr. Sanford Fleming will, it is said, be the Canadian delegate to the instant session in Washington.

Mr. Alonso Wright, the king of the Gatineau, is spoken of as probable governor of Quebec. A respectable man would thus be at the helm in that province, a most desirable change.

Another of those scandals which are of daily occurrence in Quebec has occurred in connection with the Levis contest.

As one of the men employed at Tunnel Mountain on the C. P. R. was warning some dynamite in use for blasting, he unfortunately placed it too near the fire when it exploded, killing him instantly, and

A distinguished French family have discovered a preventive of cholera in the use of carbolic acid, with which the mountaineers are diet plentifully in the hope of dis-guisting the murels. The effect is unique, and the example most contagious, and if there is the Egyptian conference. It is reported that Waddington offers to resign.

Figaro says that Waddington's successor must display greater energy against the spread of English power.

Irish interests are not completely opposed,

The rupture of the conference is a grave have to announce that the latent conflict has passed into open hostilities.

The Tribune.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 7, 1884.

The recent successes of the French arms in Annam and Tonquin, which have resulted in the acquisition of a large extent of territory from the Chinese authorities, seem destined to be the means of opening up a large portion of China to trade and commerce. The greater proportion of the foreign trade of China is now with Great Britain, but recent events show that France appears determined to become a dangerous competitor. The British authorities in India have not been idle, but have already taken active steps to counteract the designs of the French, by making preliminary surveys for laying down lines of railway to the Chinese frontier from several parts of India. English capitalists will be quite ready to extend these into Chinese territory and tap the rich provinces of Southern China and divert the trade into channels more favorable to Manchester and Birmingham. Chinese exclusiveness has hitherto prevented railway extension in that great Empire but with the example of India and Japan before the minds of her statesmen, a great revolution may soon be expected by which all parts of that vast and interesting country may, by a complete system of railways be opened up to the commerce of the world. When we consider the millions which form the population of China and the vast material resources of the country, it is manifest that such improved methods of inter-communication must give a vast impetus to mercantile enterprise to which they open up illimitable possibilities.

MOLKE THE SILENT.

Molke the Silent—der Schweiger—as he is called, is generally considered the greatest, and is certainly the most successful of living soldiers. His achievements at Koniggratz, Sedua, and the example of India surpassed, and compel the admiration of all competent military critics. Silent, quiet, cold, the incarnation of concentrated thought, just as you see him walking in the streets or moving in a drawing-room, when everybody stands respectfully aside to let him pass—so he stood on the battle field, his cold clear eye passing slowly from the point to the other, and his cold clear mind weighing the chances of victory and defeat with the intensity and serenity of a mathematician pondering over the solution of some grave problem. No one, it is said, has ever seen Count Molke excited, not even at Sedua, when the great victory of modern times decided the fortunes of the two most powerful empires of the Continent. His calmness seems mysterious, almost awful, and there is something strangely and about that silent, lonely old man. His wife died some years ago; he never had a child; his nearest relations, with the exception of a nephew and a sister, seem to be kept at a distance by him. Who are his companions and his friends? To whom does he ever talk in a friendly, familiar way? Nobody has ever been able to find out though I have often inquired. An old man of eighty-four, he still appears without fail wherever duty calls him. He is to be seen at the Emperor's receptions, the most striking personage near the throne. But how does the old Field Marshal pass his time when free from duty, when tired of work? Nobody pretends to know. Either he only penetrates into his intimacy, or else those who approach him intimately do not speak about it. When the weather is fine you may see a very tall, thin man, with very light yellowish hair and a sorrowful, leafless, wrinkled face, out of which shine a pair of stony gray eyes, wrapped in a long dark military coat, a cap on his small head, faultlessly dressed in a general's uniform—a gentlemanly, very rich of his aristocratic, slender figure, his body still erect, but his head as in deep thought slightly bent forward—such a man, I say, you may see coming out of the great real building which stands on the Konigs-Platz, at the corner of "Molke" and "Bismarck" streets, and which bears the name of "General Staff." The solitary old man, unattended by a servant, walks slowly, noiselessly. Every one who meets him looks at him attentively; if the passer-by is a soldier he stands on one side and salutes. The old general returns the salute slowly and deliberately, but apparently without seeing to whom. Every time I see him the thought occurs to me that in such guise Dante must have passed through the streets of Florence. That is General Field Marshal Helmuth von Molke, one of the strangest characters the world has ever produced. It is well worth going to Berlin to see that great historical personage.—Blackwood's Magazine.

Don't Wait.

Why suffer a single moment, when you can get immediate relief from internal or external pain by the use of Polans's Nerveine, the great pain cure? Nerveine has never been known to fail. Try a 10 cent sample bottle. You will find it just as recommended. Neuralgia, toothache, cramps, headache, and all similar complaints disappear as if by magic when Nerveine is used. Large bottles 25 cents. Test bottles 10 cents, at Egan's drug store.

Special Announcement.

We take pleasure in announcing that we have made arrangements with the publisher of the Toronto Weekly News which enable us to club that paper with the TRIBUNE at the very low price of $1.25 per year, a trifle over the regular price of the TRIBUNE alone.

This is beyond question the first time that a Toronto weekly has been brought within the reach of subscribers at so small an additional price. For this comparatively small amount our readers can place themselves in command of the whole situation. All events of interest, local, national, and foreign, will be presented completely and promptly by one or the other of these publications. The single feature of full and trustworthy market quotations will be worth, to many of our readers, more than the additional amount involved in the clubbing arrangement. To those who are not familiar with the character of the Toronto News, we would say it is the best representative of Independent journalism in Ontario. The Weekly News is a thirty-two column paper, "crisp full" of telegraph and general news (no advertisements), pictures, humorous sketches, stories, short and pithy editorials on the topics of the day, written in a familiar yet incisive style, and in all its departments evidently aims to give facts in few words. Pictures and facts, not words, appear to be its motto. We trust that all our readers will avail themselves of this unusual opportunity of securing a Toronto weekly paper at so trifling a cost.

Specimen copies of the Toronto Weekly News may be seen at this office.

St. JAMES'S DAY, 25th July, was duly observed by the Indians. In spite of hay harvesting being the special order of the day a good congregation assembled at All Saints Church at 10 a.m., of whom 24 remained to the Holy Communion. This church on Sunday last, 3rd Aug., was so thronged with worshippers that from 15 to 20 persons went away from service failing to find seats. At Christ's church there was a very large congregation on Sunday morning, and Rural Dean Baker over to the unusual number of communicants, nearly 60, had to consecrate the element three times.

SUBSTANTIAL GRIEVANCE.—The council some time since passed a by-law ordering all citizens to procure tags for their dogs, and the Chief subsequently received orders to carry out the decision of the council. In consequence about seventy people purchased the necessary decoration for their canine friends, but others neglected to do so, and the Chief in accordance with his instructions had summons issued against these refractory residents. Here unfortunately the matter rests; nothing further has been done and much righteous indignation is the result. Those who have paid for the tags feel angry that they have gone to the expense of getting tags, while those who set at naught the by-law escape with impunity. There is evidently something rotten in the management of village affairs when such things are allowed to exist. The council pass ordinances which are allowed to be set at naught, just because there is not sufficient nerve to carry out the law. The prosecution of those who infringe the dog by-law should be vigorously carried forward even if a few are offended thereby.

The amount of new assurance written during last year exceeded the largest business ever transacted by any other company in one year; the business of 1883 was eighteen millions larger. The Society has written a past twenty years than any other company in the world. Total amount paid policyholders since the organization of the Society $73,677,000.21. The amount of surplus over liabilities (four per cent. valuation) is larger than that of any other life insurance company. The Society issues a plain and simple contract of assurance, free from burdensome and technical conditions, and incontestable after three years. All Policies as soon as they become income producing are payable immediately upon the receipt of satisfactory evidence of death, without the delay of sixty or ninety days, usual with other companies. The Society has no contested claims on its books.

TESTIMONIALS.

Rev. R. Large Says: Being for years afflicted with Dyspepsia, and finding my health greatly improved by only a little of the Crowfoot Bitters, I am pleased to recommend it to those in like manner afflicted.

R. LARGE, Minister of the M. E. Church, Neaford, Ont.

A St. Vincent Farmer Says:

This is to certify that I have used the Crowfoot Bitters, and can recommend it to a first-class medicine for the blood. Was very bad with Dyspepsia for ten years. After using the above Bitters I could eat anything I wished without feeling any discomfort after, and feel thankful for the good health I am enjoying through them.

Yours, etc., SAMUEL ELYEA, 75 Line St. Deseronto.

Only One Package Cures Dyspepsia. Only a dollar package of the Crowfoot Bitters cured me of Dyspepsia after all other remedies failed.

AMERICAN CANOE ASSOCIATION

The American Canoe Association is now holding its annual meet for 1884 at Delaney's Point on the northeast end of Grimsby Island in the St. Lawrence. The camp is about four miles from Gananoque, five miles from Clayton and two miles from the Thousand Islands. There are about thirty about two hundred canoists in camp and more are coming by every boat, and it is supposed that by the end of this week there will be four hundred members on the ground. Commodore Nickerson and Secretary Noid have been kept very busy attending to the running order but both of these officers are invariably courteous and general favorites their work has been pleasant and comparatively easy. On Friday last the Star, Pilgrim took down six canoes and camp outfit belonging to members of the Deseronto Club. Mr. F. C. Titus, E. C. French, W. B. Rathbun, and W. C. B. Rathbun had gone down by train and on the arrival of the Pilgrim proceeded to fit up Deseronto Camp. In a short time five tents were up and a large display of bunting was floating to the breeze. The camp with its pretty white tents and canoes drawn up on the shore presents a very pleasant and attractive appearance to passengers on passing steamers. All visitors and especially friends from Deseronto, will find themselves heartily welcomed by the jovial members of the Club, who are, it is needless to say, having a splendid time. The following members of our local club in addition to those already mentioned will be in camp this week viz.—H. B. Rathbun Esq., Dr. Clinton, E. C. French, W. B. Rathbun, J. B. McMurrich, Wm. Hinchbaugh Jr. and A. M. Vickers, and Herbert B. Rathbun. Mr. N. D. Bullock, of Round Island is running a general mess tent for the benefit of those who do not understand the culinary art or who have no camp cooking. He gives perfect satisfaction, everything being served up in the best possible style. It is the intention of the whole squadron to make a cruise for a distance of about 25 miles visiting many points of interest in the St. Lawrence. The whole party will on this trip, which was expected to take place to-day, spend an hour or two in the evening with Mr. Frank, H. Taylor at his hotel at Gananoque, "Gananoque Lodge." This trip and visit has been looked forward to by all and will prove, no doubt one of the events of the meet. It is generally acknowledged that none of the great summer meetings are more enjoyable or bring together a better class of pleasure seekers than the meetings of the American Canoe Association.

SHANNONVILLE

(From our own correspondents.)

The episodes of our village life are becoming decidedly sensational. The following will serve as a sample for the week. On Tuesday night last, after Mr. John Lander had locked up the grist mill, he had occasion to return to look after some papers he had forgotten; on opening the door he found that burglars were in the mill. He quietly called for help and several men in the locality responded to the call. In the meantime the thieves had a stiff in waiting under the arches of the bridge, and within sight and sound of their would be captors effected an escape down the river. They had entered through a small trap door in the lower floor and by the same means had escaped. They left behind them a bag of flour that they had filled and a dark confusion. As the escape was managed so skillfully the probability is that the same gang had pursued the same course for a considerable time and helped themselves to flour and feed in small quantities just as they needed it.

It will be remembered by the readers of THE TRIBUNE that about two years ago a little girl, two years of age, was lost in Amelburg, and that no tidings of the whereabouts of the little creature have ever been received. From some malicious intent, or a very unseemly joke it had been reported to the parents that our neighbor, Mr. Stocks, had the child, and during the past week several visits have been made to the village with a view to securing the child. On Saturday last three men came to the house—one of them was Mr. Baigley, the father of the lost child and waiting under Mr. Spring, said to be a constable, and the name of the third was not transpired. We presume the result of the visit was to convince the father that he had been cruelly victimized, and that there was no child that answered for a moment to the one he had lost to be found in Mr. Stocks's family. The only one that comes near it in age is a boy, while the lost child was a girl. Our advice to all parties concerned is not to repeat those annoying visits, or trouble may come out of it.

On Sabbath next the first quarterly meeting of the Methodist Church, in the Shannonville Circuit takes place. Quite an interest has been awakened in this meeting as it will be regarded as an official inauguration of the Union movement on the circuit and as we have now no presiding elders to take charge, the first quarterly sermon will be preached by Rev. J. C. Ains, the Superintendent of the Circuit. Mr. Ains will also preach in the Shannonville Church at night a sermon to young men.

PORT OF DESERONTO.—The Customs returns for the Port of Deseronto for the month of July show goods entered for consumption of the value of $5357.00; duty $1081.81. For corresponding month of 1883, the imports were $3183.00; duty $533.76, an increase this year of $2174. and $548, respectively. The exports for July this year reach a value of $14,353, as compared with $38,243 last year, an increase of $6,110. The reports inwards from foreign ports at the Custom House were 35; outwards 44.

CEMETERY.—We learn that another movement has commenced having for its object the purchase of a suitable lot of land for a cemetery. It seems that a desirable lot can now be obtained at but a little distance from the village, and it is hoped that before the close of the summer the cemetery question will be solved. The people of Deseronto have not acted with much energy in this matter in former years, and we trust that the promoters of this last attempt will meet with all success.

WARREN LELAND,

whom everybody knows as the successful manager of the

Largest Hotel Enterprises

of America, says that while a passenger from New York on board a ship going around Cape Horn, in the early days of emigration to California, he learned that one of the officers on the vessel had cured himself, during the voyage, of an obstinate disease by the use of

Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Since then Mr. LELAND has recommended AYER'S SARSAPARILLA in many similar cases, and he has never yet heard of its failure to effect a radical cure. Some years ago one of Mr. LELAND's farm laborers bruised his leg. Owing to the bad state of his blood, an ugly scrofulous swelling or lump appeared on the injured limb. Horrible itching of the skin, with burning and darting pains through the lump, made life almost intolerable. The leg became enormously enlarged, and running ulcers formed, discharging great quantities of extremely offensive matter. No treatment was of any avail until the man, by Mr. LELAND's direction, was supplied with AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, which allayed the pain and irritation, healed the sores, removed the swelling, and completely restored the limb to its normal condition. Mr. LELAND has personally used for Rheumatism, with entire success; and, after careful observation, declares that, in his belief, there is no medicine in the world equal to it for the cure of Liver Disorders, Gout, the effects of high living, Salt Rheum, Sores, Eruptions, and all the various forms of blood diseases.

We have Mr. LELAND's permission to invite all who may desire further evidence in regard to the extraordinary curative powers of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA to see him personally either at his mammoth Ocean Hotel, Long Branch, or at the popular Leland Hotel, Broadway, 27th and 28th streets, New York. Mr. LELAND's extensive knowledge of the good done by this unequalled eradicator of blood poisons enables him to give inquiries such valuable information.

Latter Day Saints Revising Their Bibles

Unto all nations, kindred tongues and people unto whom these presents shall come: it having been represented by one John Murphy of Polo, Caldwell county, Mo., that I in a conversation with him last summer denied my testimony as one of the three witnesses to the Book of Mormon;

To the end, therefore, that he may understand me now if he did not then, and that the world may know the truth, I wish now

It is not known what disposition he will make of the manuscripts in his possession. The papers have been cut up into printers' "takes," and are soiled to some extent, but the handwriting is very plain, and not a word is missing. The non-polygamous Mormons in this section are increasing in numbers, principally by reason of the profound respect for the faith which Mr. Whitmer's blameless life has inculcated.

James Freeman Clarke's Latin.

"Thirty years ago," says James Freeman Clarke, "I tried the new method of pronouncing Latin. I was travelling in Italy. My wife, who had been a priest before, asked me the meaning of the tourmaline at that moment, not recollecting its significance," said, "I don't know; but there is a priest, and he will tell you." He did so. At that time, I first constructed a Latin sentence. I thought I had made it very well, and then I said it aloud. As I imagined, instead of Italian pronunciation, I heard my own English, and then went to him and said it. 'Ed! Che dite?' he asked. I repeated it again. 'Ed! all right,' he said. Here, I turned to this man to a confessor. He wrote, 'You have sinned.' His words were like those of his sins. This was as near as I ever came to the continental pronunciation of Latin."

days. Fortunately we saw a bear and succeeded in killing him. And what a feast we had that night. I can never forget our feelings when one day we saw a steamer. We shouted with joy and fired our guns and anchored, but the people on the steamer did not see us, and she passed from our sight. Our hearts sank and we gave ourselves up for lost. Then, when in the fog, Linquest, one of the party, gave the shout, "Ship, ahoy!" You should have seen us jump. There she

The Tribune.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 7, 1884.

TOWN AND COUNTY.

Duck shooting commences on the 15th inst.

Very cheap stationery at the TRIBUNE office.

The Rathbun Company have brought 125,000 logs down the Moira river this season.

The Gananoque Journal states that business on the "Puritan" is on the increase, Capt. Bass proving himself a most courteous and obliging officer.

The "Hero" still maintains her reputation as a popular boat, and is securing a very large proportion of the bay travel this season.

TELEPHONE.—The electric staff have connected the Bay View Farm by telephone with the central office, thus securing better facilities for transacting business with that establishment.

AN immense crowd of Belleville people patronized the excursion to Napanee on the str. Quinte last Saturday afternoon. The trip was greatly enjoyed by the whole party.

There will now be a change of programme; excursions to Newburg, Yarker, Tamworth, and other points on the N. T. & Q. The steamers will no longer have everything their own way.

The passenger car of the Bay of Quinte Railway, which had been up to Cobourg for repairs, arrived home again last week and presents now an exceedingly handsome appearance, having been very elegantly painted and otherwise improved.

THERE were heavy showers last Sunday night, the first coming on as people were coming from their respective churches. There was a great rush for home in order to save good clothes and rich dresses from the threatening elements.

LENNOX.—At the Conservative convention held last Saturday afternoon at Napanee, Mr. George I. Blackstock, of Toronto, was nominated to contest the riding in the interests of that party. Mr. Blackstock has signified his intention of accepting the nomination.

Miss Davenport, who proved herself such a capable and efficient teacher in the public schools, has seen proper to take an important step which unfortunately necessitates the employment of a new teacher. The school board, with their wonted energy and promptitude are already negotiating for the services of a qualified successor.

GRAND EXCURSION.—An excursion per N. T. & Q. Railway and steamer Quinte to Thousand Island Park under the auspices of the Eastern Methodist Church, Napanee, will take place on Saturday next. The str. will leave Deseronto at 8:15 a. m., and arrive at the Park at 4:45 p. m.; returning will leave on Monday, reaching Deseronto at 3:30 p. m. Tickets, double, $1.50. Meals on board 25 cents.

THE PROPER SPIRIT.—The gas-works authorities have taken our reproof in the proper spirit, acknowledged their mistake, and laid down a crossing at Eggar's corner in Stewart's very best style. This action is highly praiseworthy and might well be imitated by others—by the Board of Health for example, whose members, if they only remembered how the Wise Man characterizes those who hate reproof, would long since have appointed an inspector and otherwise made an effort to protect the health of the community.

DESERONTO BRASS BAND.—The Deseronto Brass Band will have a series of serenade march outs on Wednesday and Thursday evenings of each week, for the purpose of placing some additional amounts to the uniform fund. Residents will not forget this when the band calls and it is hoped that there will be a liberal response on the part of every citizen. The band has made marked progress and promises to be a great credit and source of pleasure to the people of Deseronto and should, therefore, be accorded a very liberal support.

CHICAPPEY stationery, books, slates, &c., &c., at the TRIBUNE office.

The Rathbun Company's new offices in Kingston are said to be very complete and elegant in their appointments.

The three towers on the new dry kilns look quite handsome, the tops being artistically finished and covered with tin by Mr. D. R. McKean.

The Str. Hero will take the Odd-fellows of Napanee to Wall's Island for their annual picnic on Thursday, the 14th inst.

Yesterday was the anniversary of O'Connell's birthday, and the event was celebrated by a large number of excursions in the Bay District.

COMPLAINTS are being made in the agricultural journals that the store credit system is bankrupting the farmers, and that measures should be taken to correct the evil.

CHICAP Bibles and Testaments, and other publications of the Upper Canada Bible Society at Eggar's. These publications are handsomely bound and sold at lowest possible prices.

The "North," of Belleville, took first prize in the first class yacht race at the Kingston Regatta, the "Iolante" of the same city leading in the second class, and the "Mabel," of Gananoque, in the third class.

The excursion party from Belleville to Napanee last Saturday night presented Capt. Graves, of the Quinte, with a handsome Union Jack, a significant hint to all the steamers on the bay which are sadly deficient in their display of colors.

PICNIC.—Don't forget the picnic of St. Mark's Sunday School to be held in Bedford's grove this afternoon. Trains leave the station at 10:30 and 11:30 a. m. and 4:30 p. m. and return at 8 o'clock. Fare 15c.; children of the School free.

POLICE COURT.—The quiet which has reigned in police circles for months was rudely broken by Dan Sova who was arrested by Chief Gunyon on Sunday and placed in durance vile until Monday morning, when he was far too leniently let off with a nominal fine of one dollar, instead of getting one month with hard labor.

QUARTERLY MEETING.—The first quarterly meeting of the Methodist Church, Deseronto, will be held on Sabbath morning next. Love-feast at 10 a. m.; preaching at 11 o'clock, followed by the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper. The official meeting for the transaction of business, will be held on Monday evening following at 7:30 o'clock.

An exchange suggests if farmers would go to their barns on a wet day and spend their time in making cave-troughs for the barn or stable and thereby carry away the drip which would otherwise fall on the manure pile, causing the waste of the elements of plant food contained therein, they would make more money that day than they could any fine day in the field.

THE BEST YET.—There may be seen in the Tribune office four immense potatoes selected from a quantity sent from the Bay View farm to the "Big Store." They are of the "Beauty of Hebron" variety and the four weigh sixty-eight ounces, a weight seldom attained by potatoes of this variety. They are besides an excellent potato for table use and much sought after in consequence.

Few, if any of the neighboring towns, present at this time of year a more attractive appearance than Pictou with its streets all lined with fine trees and private residences surrounded with pretty gardens and hidden amid dense foliage. In this respect this young and busy town may well envy the sedate and venerable shiretown of Prince Edward.

SPLENDID SAMPLES.—Mr. E. Baldwin, of the Napanee road, who formerly sent us in some fine specimens of oats, has recently shown us some samples of barley which are very pronounced by many judges to be very superior. The heads are well filled with seventy more grains being counted on each. We have also received a sample of spring wheat grown on the farm of Mr. Jas. Mann, three miles from Napanee on the York road. They stand 5 ft. 10½ inches high and invite inspection.

NAPANEE AND TAMWORTH RAILWAY.—The first regular passenger trains passed over the line on Monday. Many passengers went out on the first day and everything was found to work satisfactorily, the trip being pronounced very pleasant and the beautiful country through which the line passes greatly enjoyed. The people of the different villages were all delighted to see the first regular trains, which they have been so long expecting. The time table of the new road will be found in another column.

SCORES of dogs are roaming the streets without a tag.

NOTICE.—There will be no service in the Church of the Redeemer next Sunday.

MR. C. W. BELL, barrister, of Belleville, died very suddenly at Montreal, last Sunday morning.

No action has yet been taken by the Board of Health to remedy many glaring violations of the sanitary regulations.

This handsome residence of Rev. T. Stanton, Rector of St. Mark's, is fast approaching completion and presents a fine appearance.

FOOT RACE.—A foot race was run on Tuesday evening the competitors being Thos. Mallory and an unknown professional "Ped"; the latter won quite easily.

A DEGENERATE Frenchman of this town is said to be in the habit of beating his poor wife most unmercifully. This cat-of-nine-tails is said to be the only effective remedy for such monsters.

GAWSWORKS.—The new retorts and other improvements having been at last completed, they commenced yesterday to fire up at the gawsworks, and we may soon expect therefore to have gas light again.

LARGE numbers of excursionists, chiefly in detachments of spoony couples, now daily promenade the streets of the village. They hail from Napanee, Belleville, Pictou and other places on the Bay.

FERRY.—Mr. Richard Walsh is engaged this week in raising his steam ferry boat which was sunk last autumn in one of the big storms. She will be brought to Deseronto, repaired, and put on her old route again.

AT LAST.—The meanest man has at last come to the front. He gives as his excuse for not contributing to the support of the church, that he has been exposed this year to the additional obligation of paying a dog tax.

THE members of the Canadian Press Association reached Port Arthur on Monday after a pleasant trip up the lake. On their arrival they were met at the pier by a large crowd of citizens with a band and presented with an address.

A GIANT elm tree has been found a few miles from Pickering which at four or five feet from the ground measures thirty-three feet in circumference, being eleven feet in diameter. Its magnificent crown of foliage can be seen for miles towering high above the other trees of the forest.

We should like very much to know the residence which was not visited by the burglars on the night of their last visit to Deseronto. There must have been a gang one hundred strong to make the number of visits they accomplished during a few hours.

INDIAN COUNCIL.—The Indian Council will meet at an early day to discuss and arrange for the re-leasing of the reserve, and other important business. It is their intention to make important repairs on the Council House, for which purpose an appropriation of $875 has been made.

LAUNCH.—Capt. Garrett's handsome new steamer, the "Ida" will be launched at 5 o'clock p. m. on Saturday 16th inst. The interesting ceremony of naming the new vessel will be performed by Miss Garrett, the owner's daughter. The "Ida," which promises to be in every respect a model boat, will leave the following Monday for Kingston and Ottawa.

A QUESTION agitating the breasts of many interested citizens is, whether Messrs. Jenkins, Totman and Mitchell will give an oyster supper in September, or an evening excursion on the Utica immediately on the completion of the new dry kilns. Knowing how defective are the memories of the best intentioned men, it would be perhaps advisable to have the excursion.

The quiet beauty of the Bay of Quinte is well known to all our people who take a sail on its pellucid waters. Fair as the prospect may appear to the excursionist as he gazes on it from the deck of a steamer, it is not for one moment to be compared with what may be seen by the pleasure seeker who drives along the road which in some places skirts its banks. This is particularly the case along the high shore from Powles' Ferry to Pictou from which many fine views of unequalled loveliness can be obtained. We fancy that but few residents of Deseronto are aware that such charming picturesque scenery can be so easily reached or they would not be content until they had gone over the ground for themselves. Possibly the fact that the bay has to be crossed by a ferry deters many who would otherwise be inclined to take the trip by land to Pictou, Northport and other points in Prince Edward.

Rev. W. COUTHARD, of St. Andrew's Church, Pictou, preached with much acceptance in the Church of the Redeemer last Sunday, Rev. R. J. Craig taking the services in Pictou.

WELCOME VISITOR.—Mr. William Bowen states that a worm is making terrible ravages on the thistles on his farm. It is to be hoped this new visitor will make a long stay in this vicinity.

I. O. F.—Dr. Cronhyatch, S. C. R., E. Botterell, J. B. Halkett, E. S. Gummer, and T. G. Davey will address a public meeting under the auspices of Deseronto Court of Foresters on Saturday 16th inst, in Rathbun Hall at 8 p. m.

MORE CABBAGE.—The demand for Bay View cabbage is insatiable, and Mr. Howatt already laments the introduction of the telephone, as it means more orders and consequently more work. On Monday morning he had cut, packed and shipped 1,737 heads by 8 o'clock. His supply appears, nevertheless, to be inexhaustible.

NEW BUILDING.—Mr. Geo. Stewart, is moving the old building on the east side of the Deseronto House, across the street to a site on the Maricle lot, east of Mr. Butler's shop. It is Mr. Stewart's intention to proceed at once with the erection of a fine brick building which will be fitted out for two shops, the one suitable for a boot & shoe store, and the other for a dry goods establishment.

METHODIST EXCURSION.—An excursion to St. Lawrence Central Camp Ground of the Methodist Church, will take place on Saturday, August 23rd, leaving Belleville in the morning and calling at Deseronto, Pictou and intermediate ports, returning on Monday. Look out for full particulars soon, and wait for this the excursion of the season. Fare only $1.00, and trip twenty-five miles beyond Wood Island Park.

PLEASANT CEREMONY.—A pleasant episode occurred during the first trip on the N. T. & Q. R'y. While waiting at Yarker, Judge Wilkinson, who happened to be a passenger, was presented with a handsome bouquet of flowers by some ladies of Yarker, who took advantage of the auspicious occasion to pay this graceful compliment to his Honor. The presentation was acknowledged by the recipient in a neat and happy speech.

AYER'S PILLS.

A large proportion of the diseases which cause human suffering result from derangement of the stomach, bowels, and liver. AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS set directly upon these organs, and are especially designed to cure the diseases caused by their derangement, including Constipation, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Headache, Dizziness, and a host of other ailments, for all of which they are a safe, sure, prompt, and pleasant remedy. The extensive use of these PILLS by eminent physicians in regular practice, shows unambiguously the estimation in which they are held by the medical profession.

These PILLS are compounded of vegetable substances only, and are absolutely free from calomel or any other injurious ingredient.

A Sufferer from Headache writes: "AYER'S PILLS are invaluable to me, and are my constant companion. I have been a severe sufferer from Headache, and your Pills are the only thing I could look to for relief. One dose will quickly remove my bowels and free my head from pain. They are the most effective and the easiest pills I have ever found. It is a pleasure to me to speak in their praise, and I always do so when occasion offers."

W. L. EASE, of W. L. Page & Bro., Franklin St., New York, June 8, 1882.

"I have used AYER'S PILLS in numerous instances as recommended by you, and have never known them to fail to accomplish their desired end. We use medical keep them on hand at our home, and prize them as a pleasant, safe, and reliable family medicine. FOR DYSPYPSIA they are invaluable."

Medic, Texas, June 11, 1882.

THE REV. FRANCIS B. HAYWARD, writing from Atlanta, Ga., says: "For nine years past I have been subject to constipation, from which, in spite of the use of medicines of various kind, I suffered increasing inconvenience, until some months ago I began taking AYER'S PILLS. They have entirely corrected the entire habit, and have vastly improved my general health."

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS correct irregularities of the bowels, stimulate the appetite and digestion, and by their prompt and thorough action give tone and vigor to the whole physical economy.

Many would fancy that because they live on small farms, it is less important as to what class of stock they raise, and that the quality of the produce is true. The limited area from which the feed is to come makes it a matter of prime importance that the animals kept are of the best quality. They give the very best results in proportion to the food consumed. Indeed the chances are on the whole in the favor of the small farm, all-around than the large land owner. In the first place it is much easier to commence with on a small farm, and to keep the quality of the stock of animals can be better cared for than a large number, other things being equal. The facilities for the small number of animals is smaller number, while the individuality of animals is most likely to be lost sight of where the number is large. The small number of animals is more likely to be more propinate outlay in procuring suitable males where one is kept for home use, in many cases a considerable number now in very many neighborhoods have suitable animals, the service of which may be secured. The small number of animals may be thus selected adapted to the special requirements of the different families. Men who have but one beast should be especially careful to get the very best of its kind.

now, I have lately met with nothing which has interested and instructed me more than the report of an accomplished expert, a Mrs. McIntosh's short horns were all of the best stock and at six, including reproduction of the Franco-American breed, there was but a must be that the visitor with the options, the visitor did not find them what he expected to see. The English are accomplished breeders, they know how to set the character of what they want to produce by carefully drawn and high-sounding advertisements, well calculated to take in the inexperienced. Their faith in the power of the press in the raising of stock is shown where near relationship exists, perhaps in excess, is no doubt justified by the reality. "The first class we have seen," says he, "are the fine short horns, which are the best of which were shown as appeared very inferior though they came of the noblest ancestry. The above paraphrase gives Mr. Grollier's first impression of the exhibition, and the subsequent observations. In fact, his report abounds in statements of facts of interest enough to breeders to be further drawn upon.

I received, the other day, a letter to the following effect, says Sir J. B. Lawes in the Farmer and Chamber of Agriculture Journal: "Please will you let me know the difference of the manure from one ton of linseed cake, pressed, and one of clover hay." His correspondent then goes on to state that he sends milk to London for sale. There can be no doubt regarding the object of the question, which is evidently to find out whether the production of milk is more exhausting than the production of meat, and whether the general opinion on the subject—that the production of milk is more exhausting—is correct. His correspondent asks this opinion to be placed before him, not in a scientific formula, but in the more easily understood form of dollars and cents.

Milk contains about 13 per cent of dry food substance; 1,000 pounds of dry food will produce 130 pounds of milk. If I had mixed and used the same food, I should have expected that the 1,000 pounds would have produced about 85 pounds of increase in live weight, containing 63 pounds of milk matter. The 130 pounds of milk would contain 17 pounds of milk matter, leaving 63 pounds of dry animal will contain hardly one per cent. The 1,000 pounds of dry food will contain about 20 pounds of nitrogen, therefore the milk—130 pounds—will contain 17 pounds of nitrogen, while the seven pounds of milk will contain only 878 per cent.

If we assume the manure from before feeding, two tons of linseed cake will supply 57½ lbs. if fed by oxen, and against 38¼ if fed by dairy cows; these figures representing the nitrogen in milk and manure. It would thus seem that there is no allowance for the waste or loss of manure.

If, instead, we charge the loss of the manure upon the whole of the food consumed, we charge it upon the cake alone, it will require all the nitrogen in the cake to produce one gallon of milk. The quantity contained in two gallons of milk. Under these circumstances, a cow receiving one-fourth out of three parts of linseed cake will yield 14 gallons of milk. This would reduce the manure value of a ton of linseed cake to a very few shillings. It is quite evident, however, that such a method of farming, taking fully borne out by the figures given, and especially as the cost of the cake is so high, unless the loss is compensated by some other means, such as pasture land, will soon deteriorate.

Among English novelists no one has even approached the love-letters of Arabian Trollope in the composition of a love-letter. The most affectionate, he always unites the life-long devotion with the spice of espérance and the atmosphere of passion when composing a love-letter. The length of the letter is just perception of the length to which a love-letter should run. Too lengthy an epistle is a great mistake. The little trinket, the heart, the scrap he finds in his candle stick when going to bed, the few touching heart-broken phrases that come into his mind, these are his love-letters, indeed, to be treasured and read over again. Tennyson's conceit of the rose sent floating down the stream to the loved one, is a beautiful idea. In an Oriental love letter, Lailah Rokh might have received such a one, and a princess in the "Arabian Nights" responded to it by saying, "The night is now white dove's wing." There is no sadder object after the death of a beloved one than a love-letter written in ink on a piece of paper, which is now the low line lines written in ink now fading away as we opened, they exalt the perfume of flowers and caresses which break like the wind and leave letters behind him. The matter-of-fact corrector tosses the whole bundle aside; a censor; the house-maid exhibits them to the police; and the letter is sent to the Sunday letter. Finally, worse than in Persian Caste's fate when dead and buried, the letter is sent to the ocean. The night is said to be the marine store dealer. But love-letters have a final cause in domestic life; they point the great moral that is eternal; that the substance is better than the shadow; the settled sanctities of wedded life more satisfying than all the epistles of the world. Love-letters are the life around new-born children. They emphasize the feeling of honor which forbids every English man or woman to write a love-letter to a married woman. They are the life-work; and when the love letter has done its work, and drawn twin souls together by the magic affinity of affection, they warn the writer that as soon as he can turn it to the flames.

A paragraph in a Cleveland paper not long since told the story of a hoax practiced by three women upon a friend. It seemed to be a very simple matter, and was due to the friend, and illustrates a fact that should not be forgotten, that friends may be deceived, and that the deceiver may be a friend. Such jokes are criminal, and deserve the same penalty. The victim of this hoax—Mrs. Burns—had gone away for a short time, leaving her husband and three children at home. The husband went to work, and the three women thought it would be extremely funny to play a trick upon him. The husband and children were up, and everything was in a "tidy, tidy" state. A figure was made and clothed in part of Mrs.'s clothes, and was laid on the bed, and the husband was told that the body was rotting against the sewing-machine. The women scoured themselves, and then, when the husband came in, they told him that his wife was in a nervous excitement, caused by fear of what was going on with horror at the scene. The poor woman, seeing the inanimate form, immediately suspected the trick, and, in a fit of rage, threatened to commit suicide. Tettering to the husband of a neighbor, she gasped out that her husband was a loafer.

This fact alone is a significant comment upon the value of these expeditions which have cost a prince's revenue and as many lives as the conquest of a province.

The Dutch were the great navigators of the sixteenth century, and soon after achieving their nation's independence, began to speculate upon a passage to the Indies by way of the North Pole. Their ideas of that region were fanciful indeed. Some believed that these seas enclosed a pole of continual perpetual summer, others that the North Pole was a habitation of preternatural virtue and intelligence. Others thought it peopled with monsters having heads of lions, tigers, and bears, and whose husbands' heads were placed upon their shoulders, and their feet were bound together by a piece of clothing. Other tribes were headed with eyes in their breasts, living in nocturnal joys and tempests during the day.

It was believed that the voyagers would find a land of gold, and that the plants, rivaled to life by the advent of a brief spring.

Instead of the sparkling conversation and pleasant music with which the sexes reciprocally entertain each other among Western people, there are only the horrible screaming, the monotonous noise of a drum and the clang of tambourines. A Curious Relic,

There is a curious relic of Gustavus Adolphus in the possession of the King of Sweden, Augustus, which is a small, unadorned, circular coin to have been worn by the King at the battle, and is now kept in a glass case, together with the following note: "This collar has been worn by Gustavus Adolphus, King of Sweden, and was given as a keepsake to my beloved wife, Jakobine, on the day of her departure for her sojourn in this town, was the most beautiful among the maidens of the court." The King of Sweden, His Majesty deigned to dance several times with her, but on his brooking too familiarly the "colliard" him, and as a reward for her act of valor reserved the coin to himself for the night."

There is also a small, much published, tract which abstains from making any comment except the innocent remark: "The Queen was at that time at Stockholm."

There is no doubt that the best of each dish should be prepared early in the morning, before the week end, especially upon frosty days, when one must have a fire. There is a corn beef boiled; boiled ham; baked smothered tongue; baked corned beef with foot (or head), or ham; and a great many other dishes which may be interesting to the urban as follows:

COLD RICE.—Wash and drain some of the best rice; put it down to boil and cook it dry as possible. Add a littl salt to the cooking water. Turn it out on a platter, and pour cold water over it, and let it stand until the water is evaporated and it is dry again. When served turn it oston to a plate, and use sweet cream, ice cream, custard, jelly, preserves or any other delicious accompaniment.

After three days in the pickle, dip it in cool water and plunge it in boiling water in a roasting pot; put one onion, a few red peppers and a dozen cloves in the pot, and after it has boiled up well for five minutes set it on the side where it will simmer slowly; give it ten minutes for each pound. The Tribune.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 21, 1884.

The Province of Upper Egypt, in which so much interest is taken at present, in consequence of the Mahdi's ambitious designs and the military expedition which England is compelled to despatch up the Nile for the relief of General Gordon, may be described as a thin riband of cultivation on either side of 720 miles of the river, the riband gradually tapering as it goes south. The average breadth of Egypt above Cairo is under four miles and the greatest breadth does not exceed nine miles. One-third is a strip of 210 miles, averaging a furling in breadth along each bank of the Nile. This strip owes its value to the annual overflow of the Father of Waters which leaves behind a deposit of fertilizing material. A correspondent of the London Times gives some useful information concerning the people and the method of taxation. It is unnecessary to say that the taxes are heavy. He gives an instance of a sheikh who cultivates a farm of forty acres which is valued at £250 and on which he finds work and livelihood for twenty-seven persons in all. His taxes come to about £50 and he expects to clear this year after all his expenses are paid the splendid sum of £7. It will be seen therefore that the taxation is enormous and that the people of Egypt have great grievances. The fellahs are exposed to many illegal exactions at the hands of officials and the first duty of England will be to introduce some system by which protection will be afforded to this unfortunate class. It is thought that the introduction of a more complete and extensive system of irrigation would also add very materially to the value of property and effect a marked increase in revenue.

Independent Order of Foresters.

As the Supreme Court of the Order of Foresters, and the High Court of Ontario both meet in Kingston this week, advantage was taken of the interest of the members of the executive council to visit Deseronto. The invitation was gladly accepted and a public meeting held last Saturday evening in the interest of the Order. There was a large attendance of the public but the sickly, oppressive heat of the room was intolerable and large numbers were very reluctantly compelled to withdraw at different stages of the meeting. Chief Sampson Green presided, and after a few opening remarks called on a quartette choir to sing an opening ode, after which Mr. J. B. Halkett, S. V. C. R., made a few remarks, evening himself on account of the intense heat. Misses Anderson and Bernhart then sang a duet very effectively, when Mr. E. S. Cummer, S. Sec., delivered an address, expressing the pleasure afforded him by the visit to Deseronto whom he congratulated on its marked progress which indicated the probability of its becoming one of the first courts in the Order. He was followed by J. A. McMillan, P. H. C. R., of Uxbridge, who remarked that he made up his mind on his arrival that this was a community of working men and Forestry was the criterion for working men. Liberty, Benevolence, and Concord were the principles of the Order. He then contrasted the insurance system of Forestry with that of stock companies, most unfavorably to the latter, whose charges he maintained were excessive, one-half of the moneys paid to them being spent on salaries of officials and a host of agents, or in dividends to the stockholders. He illustrated by interesting figures from reports of Prof. Cherriman, Inspector of Insurance. The Foresters on the contrary had only two salaried officers, whose combined salaries were only $1200, and no additional expenses and no dividends to pay. Membership in the Order secured from medical attendance: $5.00 per week sick benefit; $20.00 funeral benefit; $100 to $300 a year after passing 70th birthday, $500, $1000 or $1500 on total disability, and $1000 $2000 or $3000 paid at death. Two cents a day would secure these benefits. No wonder then that insurance agents so bitterly opposed the Order. He closed an eloquent speech with an earnest appeal to ladies and others to work for such a beneficent organization. Mr. Thos. Mallory then rendered a solo, and Mr. Botterwell, P. S. C. R., made a short speech. Dr. Oronskytelka, S. C. R., was then introduced by the chairman. Dr. is an effective and ready speaker and he gave much valuable information concerning the Order and its steady and rapid progress. He showed that it was a purely benevolent organization open to all creeds and classes. In Canada $45,000 had been paid in claims and that too in every case within six days. Unlike stock companies they waived all technical objections. Every safeguard had been provided to ensure the safety of the funds. The membership now was about 2,500 and the funds on hand about $20,000. There were no assessments required of members at the death of a member and thus there was everything to induce working men to join the Order. He stated that the assertion that he received a salary was without foundation, he did not receive one cent. He congratulated the Deseronto Court on its growth in members which he hoped to find reflected in a very short period. The chairman in a few closing remarks expressed the hope that after what had been said many would see the necessity of joining the Court. The audience then sang the National Anthem and the people dispersed. The meeting cannot but give a decided impetus to the cause of Forestry in Deseronto.

THE BANQUET.

The members of the Executive Council were subsequently entertained by Deseronto Court by a supper at the Deseronto House.

In addition to the members of the order, there were several invited guests. There was an elegant spread, the table groaning under its load of delicacies which had been arranged with rare neatness and good effect. After doing more than ample justice to the excellent bill of fare, the following toasts were proposed:—

"The Queen"—"God Save the Queen" was sung by the company.

"All Foresters"—Their wives, daughters and sweethearts. Bro. McKee, V. C. R., responded in a forcible speech in which he welcomed the distinguished visitors, and outside friends. He hoped that the next visit of the Executive Council would find a membership in Deseronto of 188 instead of 38 as at present. The brother fairly brought down the house as he took his seat.

"The Supreme Officers"—Dr. Oronskytelka responded thanking them for the hearty manner in which the toast was received, and afterwards enforced into an explanation of several interesting episodes in the past history of the I. O. F. The other members of the Executive also replied giving brief and appropriate addresses.

"The Medical Profession"—Dr. Clinton, medical examiner for Deseronto, responded, bearing testimony to the right character of the examination insisted on that was fully as exhaustive as that in stock companies.

"The Press"—A TRIBUNE representative replied.

"Our Host and Hostess"—This toast was drunk with great enthusiasm. As the host was growing late, "Auld Lang Syne" was sung with great effect, and the company dispersed, having enjoyed an hour or two very pleasantly.

The Society has written a larger aggregate amount of new assurance during the year 1883 than any other company in the world. The amount of surplus over liabilities (four per cent. valuation) is larger than that of any other life assurance company. The Society issues a plain and simple contract of insurance, free from technicalities and technical conditions, and incontestable after three years. All policies are issued as they are here incontestable, payable immediately upon the receipt of satisfactory proof of death, and without the delay of sixty or ninety days, usual with other companies. A St. Vincent Farmer Says: This is to certify that I have used the Crowfoot Indian Bitters, and can recommend it as a first-class medicine for the blood. My system is very bad with Dyspepsia for ten years. After using the above Bitters I could eat anything I wished without feeling any discomfort after, and feel thankful for the good health I am enjoying through them.

AMERICAN CANOE ASSOCIATION.

(From our own correspondent.)

Most of our camp had special business at Round Island last Friday evening. Wives and expectorators had arrived. The lawyer, the Montie, and the professor kept the camp. When morning dawned, and the cook called for breakfast, each answered his name. Sometimes through the night all had returned on the fast flying Shocraft. No doubt the evening at Round Island had been enjoyed. It was difficult to find the first attempt of the Commodore proved a failure. On the piazza of the hotel he heard the signal for sailing, and rushing down he put his shoe on another craft. Luckily she was returning in ten minutes, and the apprehensions of the rest at his sudden departure were set at rest.

As two of the camp paddled towards Thousand Island Park next day, they were led by a steam launch flying the Rochester Standard. Getting aboard, they were cordially received by Mrs. Doan and ladies of that city. A rapid run down the river for twenty miles, a call at Westminster Park, a glimpse at Fairy Land, a peep into Summer Land, an hour's troll, with six prizes as compensation, a dinner in the woods to the music of the rippling waters and whispering leaves, a run up the American Channel past Alondria Bay, and Well's Island, where lay our old friends the Quinte and Varuna, with a greeting from the nimble Hero, and a stop at Round Island Hotel at six o'clock, found us loath to leave the trim Gougeon and her hospitable com-mo-dore and ladies. Yet with a promise to come another day, they set out on to Clayton, while their guests directed their steps to Shady Lodge which from cellar to attic was thrown open to receive the Canoe Association and lady friends. Mr. Taylor, well-known as an Artist-traveller, and popular with the Association for his proved qualities of a friend, a patron, a veteran camper, and host, with his amiable partner, was busily engaged in carrying out a delightful programme of music, fire-works, and bon fires and sparkling repartee, and refreshments. We were glad to see Deseronto Camp all present, save one poor fellow who lost his way, and did not turn up till next day. Also, we were warmly greeted by the senior member of The Rathbun Company, who with lady and daughter contributed not a little to the enjoyment of the evening. Ten o'clock struck and we were yet four miles from Camp. Soon we were in our canoes. Again were the guests of the Gougeon in luck. They boarded the Constance—another swift launch, and while they went for their comrades who had to paddle home, they enjoyed the music of the boat company, and the easy way of going home to camp. There the last man was found. He had been challenged by our cook as an intruder, but on proving his membership by the enormous quantity of provisions stowed away at tea, was invited to draw out his canoe.

PICTON.

Fishing in West Lake is better this year than usual, it being nothing uncommon for a sportsman to find a four-pound bass on his hook.

There have been five vessel loads of coal received here during the past week and more to come in soon. No freeze out for Picton next winter if the cash only holds out.

The schooner Rainbow left the 18th with a cargo of pressed hay for the American market. Mr. Lawless is presiding in the vicinity of Picton last year's straw for shipment to the States.

Picnics and excursions are the order of the day. The Picton band has an excursion to Watertown, N. Y., Aug. 26th, fare for the round trip only $1.50. Should the weather get a little cooler the boys will have a good turnout.

C. A. McDonald not long since bought out his partner's interest in his business and associated his son with him. Now his business partner, Mr. Kalls, buys them out and becomes sole proprietor, taking possession immediately.

John Vallier, cooper, in the west end of town, finds a home in the cells of the county jail. By the continued use of opium he became crazed and tried to kill his wife and destroy his household effects. Dr. Morlen attends him daily since his incarceration.

The Picton Band took part in the Belleville display on Monday this week and did some fine playing considering the number in the band. There is to be a string band also in attendance on the Watertown excursion for the benefit of those wishing to take part in the merry dance.

Sherriff Gillespie and Jas. Soloy attended the Rochester races last week and were well pleased with their trip. The Canadian mare, Phyllis, won first money in the 2:17 class, the first race won by her this season. She is owned by Chas. Wagner of Dickenson's Landing and is the fastest trotter in Canada.

GREEN POINT.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)
Mrs. Delong, of Auburn, N. Y., is visiting her brother, Mr. H. Vanallen.

Mrs. Norris, of Oswego, N. Y., is the guest of Mrs. A. Yates.

Miss Annelia Potter has returned home with Mrs. Norris to spend the winter.

Miss Scott, of Athol, spent a couple of weeks with her sister, Mrs. D. B. Cole.

Mr. and Mrs. John Curlett spent last week in Belleville with their son and Dr. Curlett.

Mr. Jacob Shortt is quite feeble; he has reached the advanced age of ninety-seven years.

Miss Cole, who looks very well after her six weeks vacation, opened her school on Monday.

The potato rot is again making its appearance.

On Thursday evening last, the congregation of Mt. Carmel Church purchased a dinner.

Mr. H. Thurg Carman left on Monday for Chicago where he will spend a month with his sister and other relatives west. On his return he will take in the Toronto Fair, Niagara Falls, and all other sights worth seeing. We extend our best wishes for a safe and pleasant trip, of which we hope he will give a full report on his return.

AYER'S
Cherry Pectoral.

No other complaints are so insidious in their attack as those affecting the throat and lungs: none so trifled with by the majority of sufferers. The ordinary cough or cold, resulting perhaps from a trifling or unconscious exposure, is often but the beginning of a fatal sickness. AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has well proven its efficacy in a few years' fight with throat and lung diseases, and should be taken in all cases without delay.

A Terrible Cough Cured.

"In 1857 I took a severe cold, which affected my lungs. I had a terrible cough, and passed night after night without sleep. The doctors gave me up. I tried AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, which relieved my lungs, induced sleep, and afforded me the rest necessary for the recovery of my strength. By the continued use of the PECTORAL a permanent cure was effected. I am now 60 years old, hale and hearty, and am satisfied your CHERRY PECTORAL saved my life. Can you wonder at my gratitude?"

HONORABLE FAIRBANKS.

Buckingham, Va., July 16, 1862.

Croup.—A Mother's Tribute.

"While in the country last winter my little boy, three years old, was taken ill with croup; it seemed as if he would die from strangulation. One of the family suggested the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, a bottle of which was always kept in the house. This was tried in small and frequent doses, and to our delight in less than half an hour the little patient was breathing easily. The doctor said that the CHERRY PECTORAL had saved my darling's life. Can you wonder at my gratitude?"

MISS EMMA CROFTON.

120 West 125th St., New York, May 16, 1882.

"I have used AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL in my family for several years, and do not hesitate to pronounce it the most efficient remedy for coughs and colds we have ever tried."

A. J. CHASE.

Lake Crystal, Minn., March 13, 1882.

"I suffered for eight years from Bronchitis, and after trying many remedies with no success, I was cured by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. JOHN W. WALKER."

Sylvania, Miss., April 6, 1882.

"I cannot say enough in praise of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, believing as I do that but for its use I should long since have died from lung trouble."

PAULINE, TEXAS, April 22, 1882.

No case of an affection of the throat or lungs exists which cannot be greatly relieved by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, and it will always cure when the disease is not already beyond the control of medicine.

The Tribune.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 21, 1884.

TOWN AND COUNTY.

VERY HOT.

A CAT'S PAW.—A Thomas cat.

FLOVER shooting has commenced.

Slates at the TRIBUNE office from 5 cents.

MR. G. S. WAKEFORD, formerly of Deseronto, is now located at West Toronto on the O. P. R.

SOME of the solid men of St. George street now indulge of an afternoon in a game of croquet under the friendly shade of the town hall.

THE Kingston Whig says that Mr. R. Dingman should challenge Hanlan. No necessity now; that great oarsman has been vanquished.

REPAIRS.—The tug "Munson" has arrived in port to undergo very extensive repairs at the Deseronto shipyard. It is the intention to make her virtually a new vessel.

AN Ohio man has just remarried the wife from whom he was divorced eight years ago. He proved to her that he had quit snoring and she demonstrated that she had learned to make good bread.

THERE has been a tremendous boom in ice cream during the past week, and Mr. R. Geddis has found it a heavy task to supply the great rush of customers to his restaurant on west Main street.

BEWARE.—Two umbrellas traipsed struck town on Saturday, who are said to be not over anxious for work. Such characters are suspected of burling intentions, and honest citizens should sleep with at least one eye open.

SENTENCED.—Green, who was recently committed to Belleville for stealing beer kegs, was sentenced last Friday by the police magistrate to two weeks imprisonment, dating from the time of his committal.

GREAT CUT.—The Big Mill still continues to increase the record, having, on August 14th, cut 2,378 logs. The supreme effort will soon be made to reach 2,500, which accomplished, the Big Mill moonlight excursion on the Quinte follows.

THE news of Hanlan's defeat was received here as elsewhere with much surprise, the Toronto man being considered invincible. It may have been an honest race, but little confidence is placed in professional oarsmen who are generally ready to sell out if occasion requires.

COMPLAINT.—A resident sends in a communication, the purport of which is that some parties are guilty of selling intoxicants on Sunday. He states that he has sufficient evidence to secure a conviction and that if there is a continuance of the illegal practice he will most certainly take proceedings.

U. E. L.—Chiefs Green and Hill, represented the Tyendinaga Reserve, at the Niagara U. E. L. demonstration last week, and both delivered interesting addresses suitable to the occasion. Excellent speeches were also given by the Lieut. Governor and Senator Plumb. One Dennison, of Toronto, rather marred the proceedings by his extravagant banter.

A BUSY CONTRACTOR.—Mr. James Booth has finished his large contract at the Methodist Memorial church, Adolphstown, and has entered into another with Mr. Andrew Oliver, for the mason work on the addition to the Public School house. He will also build the new house to be erected by Mr. E. S. Grills on the lot which that gentleman purchased from Mr. Wm. Jamieson.

SUNFLOWERS.—An ardent admirer of Oscar Wilde has placed on our table some fine specimens of sunflowers. There are some fine displays of these honest, open-countenanced flowers to be seen this year in many gardens. They are said to be excellent preventives of malaria and their growth should therefore be encouraged in order to counteract the baleful supineness of our inefficient Board of Health.

CHEAPEST books at the TRIBUNE office.

It is about time for wood chucks to be ripe.

THE TRIBUNE till the end of the year for 25 cents.

THE Deseronto Flour Mills last Saturday evening completed the fifth consecutive run of 144 hours.

THE streets presented a busy appearance last Saturday evening, the crowds being something extraordinary.

FAST time may be expected from the G. T. station to Kingston; a Kingston cabby has traded horses with a gipsy.

Our thanks are due to our numerous correspondents for their contributions this week. It requires some self-denial to forward correspondence in such hot weather.

REMINER.—The excursion to the St. Lawrence Central Camp Ground of the Methodist Church will take place on Saturday next, 23rd inst., by the steamer Hero. Great attractions are held out for excursionists, and the fare from Deseronto is only $1.

INSURANCE.—Mr. Samuel Softley, representing Chas. E. Good, O. E., of Montreal, was busy last week laying out a plan of Deseronto for the benefit of the leading insurance companies who will find it very convenient for reference.

GOOD FISHING.—There have been some splendid catches of fish made in this vicinity of late, one man having caught 70 fine bass in the vicinity of the light house at Telegraph Island in one day. Every fish pole is now daily in requisition.

HIGHER.—Mr. C. Goodmurphy is adding a story to the double building occupied by Mr. D. R. McKee, dry goods merchant. There is a pressing demand for more shops and offices in Deseronto.

THE TALLEST.—Mr. Joseph Maricle, who lives about a mile from town, has sent in some stalks of wheat which are truly magnificent samples. They are six feet, six inches high, and the heads are well filled with fine heavy grain. They cannot be beaten.

As will be seen by advertisement in another column, Mr. James Anderson, late of Oshawa, directs the attention of the people of Deseronto to his intention of commencing the business of watchmaker and jeweler in Mr. W. Carter's new store, east Main St. He hopes by attention to business to gain a fair share of public patronage.

THE WEATHER.—The heat during the past week has been most oppressive, the maximum temperature being as follows: Thursday, 84°; Friday, 89°; Saturday, 90°; Sunday, 90.3°; Monday, 90.1 and Tuesday, 90.3. Sunday and Tuesday were thus the hottest days of the season. The heavy showers which set in yesterday were timely and refreshing.

THE SCHOOLS.—In obedience to the dictates of educational red-tapeism, the public schools re-opened on Tuesday, even though the thermometer was dancing in the nineties. Principal Emerson and the other teachers were at their posts prompt at the call of duty. Miss Ross, of Whitby, also commenced her connection with the school by entering on the charge of the advanced department.

I. O. O. F.—Mr. Robert Jack has returned from St. Thomas, where he has been representing Deseronto Lodge of I. O. O. F. at the meeting of the Grand Lodge in that city. He took advantage of his visit to make a trip also to the Falls and other points of interest. The meetings of the Grand Lodge were very interesting and the reports showed marked progress all along the line. A. L. Morien, of Napanee, was elected Grand Master, and W. H. Martin, Chatham, D. G. M.

BAND CONCERT.—It requires some effort, even on the part of ardent seekers after amusement, to throw off the prevalent languor caused by the oppressive heat, and the Deseronto Cornet Band must accept it as a graceful compliment that such a large audience turned out to their Concert on Tuesday evening. Dr. Newton made an admirable chairman, opening the proceedings by referring to the obligations on the community to encourage the Band which was such a source of pleasure to the town. Solos were given by Miss Anderson, and Messrs. H. Burgess, H. Aylsworth, and Mallory; a duet, by Misses Barnhart and Anderson; quartet, by Misses Anderson, Barnhart, Parks and Mr. Walker. The feature of the evening was the inimitable whistling of Miss Armstrong, of Canton, N. Y., who was frequently encouraged. The band gave a couple of selections also in an excellent manner.

A. MILKIN.—Mr. Wm. Jamieson, Treasurer of the local Agricultural Society, owns a very valuable cow which is much admired. It is of a mixed Durham and Ayrshire breed and gives an extraordinary yield of milk.

I. O. F.—Messrs. Wm. Stoddard and D. Howatt are representing Deseronto Court, I. O. F., at the meeting of the High Provincial Court of Ontario in Kingston this week. The reports presented are of the most encouraging character.

GOOD TIME COMING.—The Ladies' Guild of St. Mark's Church are busy preparing for a Lawn Festival which will take place at an early day. There will be a rich display of fancy work for sale on the occasion. Young men will do well to postpone their purchases of smoking caps and pen wipers.

SERENADE.—The Band have commenced their serenade visits. On Friday evening they marched to the Deseronto House to pay their respects to Mr. Watson Kirk and his bride. They were hospitably entertained by Mr. Kirk. The affair drew a large crowd to the neighborhood.

A WATERING CART, is the great desideratum of the age as far as Deseronto is concerned. It would pay the business men to combine and employ one during the dusty season. Their goods must be greatly deteriorated in value by the clouds of dust which are blown into every part of their shops.

MOONLIGHT SAIL.—The staff of the Big Store are making arrangements for a pleasant trip down the bay by moonlight to Davy's Island. The stmr. Deseronto has been chartered for the occasion and the staff with their wives, families, and cousins will no doubt have a pleasant time.

EXCURSION.—Another of those pleasant excursions on the stmr. Quinte from Belleville to Napanee will take place on Saturday next. The stmr. will also call at Northport and other ports; fare for round trip 25 cents. The boat will leave Deseronto at 3 p. m. for Napanee.

NOT SO FAST.—We observe many teamsters who are in the habit of driving in their horses on the double quick just before feeding hours. This is alleged to be very injurious to horse flesh, impairing digestion, and preventing them from feeding to proper advantage. Better start for the stable a few minutes earlier and take it easier.

HONORED.—Mr. F. S. Rathbun, Capt. of the Deseronto Club, has been elected to the high position of Vice-Commodore of the American Canoe Association for the current year. The officers of the Association are now as follows:—Commodore, General Oliver, Albany; Vice-Commodore, F. S. Rathbun, Deseronto; Rear Commodore, F. P. Andrews, Rochester; Secretary, Mr. Neide; Members of the Executive Committee, Messrs. Rand, Wood and Vaux.

"TREASURES FROM THE PROSE WORLD" is the title of a new book being introduced in Deseronto. It is a finely arranged work giving biographies, engravings, and the finest selections of the best authors. Being of low price and rare merit it must meet with a large sale. Miss Annie Jones is the Deseronto agent. Orders can be left at Eggar's Drug and Bookstore, where the book can be seen.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—Last Saturday, Miss Mary E. Glenn, daughter of Robert Glenn, of Ameliasburgh, went to Belleville to do some trading and in the evening attended the meeting of the Salvation Army at Metropolitan Hall. Before the meeting closed she left the hall, presumably for the purpose of going home. By mistake she opened a door leading to the back yard and stepped out falling to the ground beneath, a distance of twenty feet. The accident was soon discovered and assistance rendered. When picked up, Miss Glenn was insensible and remained in that state until she died about fifteen minutes later. It was some time before she was identified as she was a comparative stranger in the city. The deceased was 29 years of age.

LAUNCH.—The "Ida" was successfully launched at 6:15 o'clock last Saturday evening, under the most auspicious circumstances. A large crowd of spectators were assembled to witness the event, including residents of Deseronto and visitors from other towns on the bay, the Quinte especially having brought a very large excursion party from Belleville. The Deseronto Brass Band put in an appearance, and, ascending, to the promenade deck a short time before the launch, played several inspiring airs. The "Ida" herself was gallantly dressed with flags, and at the bow there hung suspended by a blue ribbon a bottle of champagne to be used in naming the new vessel, while on a temporary platform, the observed of all observers, stood Miss Ida Garrett, the daughter of the owner, ready to perform that pleasing ceremony. Mr. Evans had all his arrangements very complete and little time was lost in getting the vessel off. Wedges were quickly driven home, blocks split and shores removed, and the last block being previously knocked out by Mr. John Stewart, the handsome vessel began to move. Miss Garrett deftly broke the bottle with its sparkling contents, on the stem, the band struck up "Cheer, Boys, Cheer," and the "Ida" glided gracefully into the bay. Everybody proclaimed the launch one of the prettiest they had ever seen.

A MARVELOUS STORY

TOLD IN TWO LETTERS.

FROM THE SON. "28 Cedar St., New York, Oct. 2, 1882.

"Gentlemen: My father resides at Glover, Vt. He has been a great sufferer from Scrofula, and the enclosed letter will tell you what a marvelous effect has had in his case. I think his blood must have contained the humor for at least ten years; but it did not show, except in the form of a scrofulous sore on his wrist, until about five years ago. From a few spots which appeared at that time, it gradually spread so as to cover his entire body. I assure you he was terribly afflicted, and an object of pity, when he began using your medicine. Now, there are few men of his age who enjoy as good health as he has. I could easily name fifty persons who would testify to the facts in his case. Yours truly, W. M. FRILLIERS."

FROM THE FATHER: "It is both a pleasure and a duty for me to state to you the benefit I have derived from the use of

Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Six months ago I was completely cured with a terrible humor and scrofulous sores. The humor caused an incessant and intolerable itching, and the skin cracked so as to cause the blood to flow in many places whenever I moved. My sufferings were great, and my life a burden. I commenced the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla in April last, and have used it regularly since that time. My condition began to improve at once. The sores have all healed, and I feel perfectly well in every respect—being now able to do a good day's work, although 73 years of age. Many inquire what has wrought such a cure in my case, and I tell them, as I have here tried to tell you, AYER'S SARSAPARILLA. Glover, Vt., Oct. 2, 1882. Yours gratefully, HIRSH FRILLIERS."

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA CURES Scrofula and all Scrofulous Complaints, Erysipelas, Eczema, Ringworms, Itchings, Sores, Rashes, Tumors, and Eruptions of the Skin. It clears the blood of all impurities, aids digestion, stimulates the action of the bowels, and thus restores vitality and strengthens the whole system.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 28, 1894.

The fruit canning industry, though yet in its infancy, is destined to become one of the most important in Canada. The demand for canned goods in England, India, South Africa, &c., is apparently unlimited, and hence the probability of this branch of trade assuming vast proportions. The successful operations of Messrs. Boulter & Dunning at Picton show what can be accomplished in this line. We might suggest the propriety of the formation of a stock company with the view of erecting a similar establishment in Deseronto. Local capitalists would find such an investment in every sense profitable. It would afford employment for a large number of hands, both male and female, and the market which it would afford for fruit and vegetables would attract large numbers of farmers from all parts of the adjoining counties, and thus contribute to the business of the village and increase the value of property. Here then is a chance for local capitalists and merchants. The matter should be immediately considered and acted on with promptitude.

DESERONTO TO TAWMORTH

Leaving Deseronto at noon on Thursday, 21st inst., a rapid run over that model little road, the Bay of Quinte railway, brings us to Deseronto, where we find the train next station. Here close connection was made with the Grand Trunk, and a few minutes more finds us at Napanee station, ready to carry out our proposed intention of taking a trip over the Napanee, Tamworth and Quebec Railway, and of thus acquiring some knowledge of the line at least, for it is a trip through which it passes. At Napanee we are joined by Mr. M. J. Butler, the engineer of the line, and one of his staff, and are greeted also with a friendly grasp of the hand from Mr. H. B. Sherwood, the energetic Superintendent of the road. Before boarding the Tamworth train we observed that great improvements have been made at Napanee in the way of providing aids and switches in order to afford ample facilities for handling freight and making proper connections with the Grand Trunk. All aboard and soon we find ourselves running at a rapid rate over this first completion of the road. The road-bed is first class and there is a smooth and easy motion. Telegraph poles are seen distributed along the track preliminary to their introduction to a proper telegraph service which will soon be established. In a few minutes we reach the first station, Napanee Mills, where we remain a few minutes, while the engine hunts some cars of freight for the paper mills. Off again, and passing the Napanee Line Works, we catch from our post of observation, which is the platform of the rear car, some pretty views of the Napanee river which is here very beautiful. Newburgh is distinctly announced by the brakeman, and stepping off the train we find ourselves admiring the handsome station house with its airy and capacious waiting room, which, an unusual in Canada, has evidently been arranged with a view to the comfort of passengers. This we discovered to be the case all along the road, and in this respect the N. T. Q. is certainly excelled by no line. The stations are all painted a dark green with red roofs, and show evidence of the taste and part of the designer. In the Newburgh freight shed could be seen evidences of a large freight traffic and we observe quantities of paper, the product of the Newburgh Mills, ready for shipment. The various paper mills will furnish large traffic for the road, as in addition to the carriage of their products, they require vast quantities of lumber and other woods, which are brought over the road from the back country. Time did not permit a close inspection of Newburgh, but it is prosperous and prettily situated. There seems however to be a lack of paint which detracts from the appearance of the village, but we learn the operation of the line is already making a change in all the villages, there being a general disposition to spruce up in order to catch the favorable impression of visitors. Just beyond Newburgh we pass a section house, a charming little cottage with garden attached, commanding a pretty view of the river. Happy must be the section boss who makes such a place his home. There is a heavy grade beyond Newburgh before reaching Thomson's Mills, a mile farther on. At Clarke's Mills which is situated in the midst of a fine country, men were busy finishing the station which is covered with an iron roof. The handsome brick residence of Mr. D. Williams is seen a little way off and some pretty cottages in the distance. Yarker, fourteen miles from Napanee is reached at 1.20 p. m. As the train does not go farther we have time to make a closer acquaintance with this charming village. It is at once favorably impressed the stranger, the neatly painted cottages with their lawns and bright displays of flowers giving an air of cozy comfort to the whole place. There are spots however on the sun, and we observe that temple of learning, the public school, looks faded and neglected, the grounds being destitute of trees and flowers, altogether out of keeping with what is seen elsewhere. There is excellent water power at Yarker, there being 28 feet of head, requiring 18 inches of dam, and at Coldbrook there is a similar water privilege. This splendid water power will, no doubt, be further utilized, and these villages are destined to become great manufacturing centres. Yarker is the seat of the extensive establishments of Messrs. Boulter & Co., and Connolly & Son, who carry on an extensive business. There is as yet no station at Yarker, there being some difficulty about the site between it and the rival Coldbrook, a short distance above Mr. James Fowler's place. It takes our little party on the locomotive to give us a quick run to Enterprise where it is hoped we will meet another engine. We

by past Galbraith Road, where there is a platform. Yarker takes from which comes a refreshing breeze, by Moscow a pleasant village in the midst of a rich cultural country, through rich fields of grain until we reach the drowned land past the outlet of Mud Lake where are piles of wood for the paper mills and at last reach Enterprise where further progress is shown by a train of gravel cars. Enterprise deserves its name and is accordingly growing, a boom being given by the opening of the railway. Descending from the engine we proceed to tramp along the track, a decent title to our editorial dignity, but then the Gen. Manager does the same and so on we trudge though the heat is intense. This method of progression has its advantages; it is healthy and gives us moreover a good opportunity of inspecting the track. We are approaching the sinkhole, which for a time was thought to be an insuperable obstacle. It consists of a series of depressions with ledges of rocks coming to the surface at intervals. The depressions are very deep, the last and most serious attaining a depth of 65 feet. The difficulty has been overcome by putting down layers of logs, and above these larch wood, on which the train is laid. This work was entrusted to our townsman Mr. Charles Dryden, required a vast quantity of material. The train passes smoothly and smoothly over this portion of the track without any apparent settling or any movement of the adjacent water. Here we are met by No. 18, and Mr. Chisholm, the contractor of the northern section takes us on that engine the rest of the distance to Tamworth. A few minutes after leaving the sinkhole, we come to the ballast pit which is in the side of a large hill. A large gang of swarthy Italians are busy at work loading the train with the gravel, which is here of a splendid quality. These Italians are good workers, sober, industrious and economical. They commit all their business to their leader, or foreman, who purchases supplies and makes provision for all their wants. The cars being loaded we take the remainder of the distance to Tamworth, the present terminus of the line, and grand entree of a large section of country. There is a fine station house with extensive freight sheds, and preparations were being made for a turntable. Mr. C. Dryden and a gang of men was busy filling in and leveling up for more sidings and tracks and yard accommodation and a general air of business pervaded the neighborhood. Passing down a broad boardwalk, we direct our way to the village, which is situated in the midst of a rolling country on the Salmon River, which gives here excellent water power. It has twelve stores, four hotels, two grist mills, two saw-mills, blacksmith shops, &c. It is thus a place of considerable importance and from its excellent situation certain to grow and maintain its supremacy. With whetted appetites we take our place, with our friend Largent and other railway men at the hospitable board of "mine host" of the Village House, in a vain endeavor to rival their efforts in absorbing the good things before us. We arrive again at the station in time to meet the evening train from Napanee which arrives with a full quota of passengers. Leaving Tamworth at 7.40 p. m., we find ourselves after a pleasant run in Napanee at 10.20 p. m. Lon is waiting and an hour's drive brings us to Deseronto, having thus spent a busy and profitable afternoon. Our thanks are due to the Gen. Manager and Engineer for much valuable information, which at a future time we may communicate to our readers. We were more than pleased with the N. T. Q. and the country through which it runs; it is not surprised that it is already more than meeting the expectations of the Company, and that with further extension and connections it will prove a valuable property and the means of opening up and developing a large trade with the back country.

Mr. W. C. McDonald, of Montreal, the king of tobacco manufacturers in America, is now making a new chewing tobacco called "Honey Suckle," which is without doubt the purest and best chewing tobacco made. One plug will convince any person who chews tobacco that the Honey Suckle has no equal—you can get it at the "Big Store."

THURSDAY, AUGUST 23, 1884.

TOWN AND COUNTY.

VERY cheap books at the TRIBUNE office.

The "Ida" sailed for Kingston last Saturday morning.

MR. RANDAL has entered on his duties as Clerk of the District Court at Shannonville.

The Midland Central Fair will be held at Kingston on Sept. 30th and October 1, 2, and 3rd.

THE Independent electors of Lennox are all busy to-day rolling up a majority for one of the candidates.

There was a pleasant social party at the residence of Mr. Geo. Clement last Monday evening, all present greatly enjoying themselves.

EVEN Grindstone Island is ahead of Deseronto on the cemetery question. The people there having determined to provide a suitable resting place for their dead.

THE storm drum was hoisted on Monday morning, and the promised gale came along in the afternoon, the wind attaining a high velocity about 9 p. m. Some rain fell during the night.

SHIPMENTS.—Large numbers of railway ties have recently come over the N. T. & Q. Railway to this port for shipment to Oswego, and very heavy shipments of doors have also been made of late for London, Eng.

SHIP YARD.—Mr. Arnoldi's steam yacht "Joe" was up on the marine railway last week for repairs, and the Tug Munson has been hauled out for a thorough overhauling; the canal barge will soon be ready for launching.

THE Quinte carries an excursion from Belleville to Picton on Saturday afternoon calling at intermediate ports. She will leave Deseronto at 5 p. m. As this is probably the last of these cheap excursions, many will avail themselves of the opportunity to make the trip to Picton.

BOUNDARY ROAD.—The attention of readers has already, at different times, been directed to the necessity of putting the boundary road in good condition. It would repay the village to gravel it as far as the main gravel road. Many farmers who are now deterred in autumn from coming in with loads, would then make Deseronto to the market for their grain.

The board walk on the east side of St. George street is a great improvement and might with advantage be extended to Dundas street. There are several bad holes here and there in other boardwalks, on South Mill and Centre Streets especially. Before the fall rains set in it would be well for the Council to lay down a few more good crossings and then they can look back with much self-complacency on what they have effected this season in the way of boardwalk improvements.

On account of a lack of accommodation in the asylums, the insane are now committed to the county goals until some vacancy occurs. That is not surely a state of affairs which should exist in a wealthy and progressive province like Ontario. The goal is most certainly not the place for this unfortunate class in view since the Conspiracy case has fired out and the boundary of Ontario is at last settled; there should be some disposition on the part of the local house to address itself to some legislation in the interest of the Province.

THE Toronto Board of Trade are memorializing the government for a reduction of the duty on wheat, the present duties discriminating against the Canadian millers. A speaker pointed out that there was $20,000,000 invested in the milling industry employing hands representing a population of 60,000. Fully one third of these had been out of employment the greater part of the year, and another third had been compelled to leave the country. Many mills were being run at a great loss to owners. The government will, it is presumed, afford the necessary relief.

THE TRIBUNE till the end of the year for 25 cents.

THE staff of the Big Store have fixed on Friday evening, as the date of their moonlight excursion.

Do not tattle. Do not gossip from one family to another. If you have a wife let out the job to her.

THE Quinte carried a large excursion party from Napanee to the Murray canal on Tuesday.

WHAT have become of the curlews. Are they all dead. Now is the time to commence that rink, that was so much talked about last season.

MR. NORRIS, head master of Markdale public school, shot Miss Ford a teacher in the same school on her refusal to marry him. He then committed suicide.

THE cheapest slates, stationery, &c., at the TRIBUNE office.

"PECK'S BAD BOY" appeared at Rathbun Hall on Tuesday evening and was welcomed by a very large audience, who express satisfaction with the performance.

THE September committee meetings of Ontario Diocese have been declared off as there is very little business to transact and as they conflict with the Mission Board meeting in Montreal.

CAMP BEDFORD.—Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Bedford and a large party of friends have been in camp for some time at Thompson's Point and report a very pleasant time at that popular resort.

A heavy thunderstorm came up last Saturday afternoon and for several minutes hail of a very large size fell in considerable quantities. The Gospel Tent was struck by the squal and the roof somewhat damaged.

HOSTILITIES have commenced between France and China. The French fleet bombarded Foo Chow and captured a portion of the Chinese squadron. They were repulsed, however, on the following day by the heavy fire of the Chinese forts.

THE Toronto Weekly News is all pictures, meat; no wind or gush. It is content to state facts, leaving to others the monopoly of verbose writing and tiresome platitudes. "The best is the cheapest" becomes literally true when speaking of the Toronto Weekly News.

Slates at the TRIBUNE office from 5 cents.

"TREASURES FROM THE PROSE WORLD" is the title of a new book being introduced in Deseronto. It is a finely arranged work giving biographies, engravings, and the finest selections of the best authors. Being of low price and rare merit it must meet with a large sale. Miss Annie Jones is the Deseronto agent. Orders can be left at Eggar's Drug and Bookstore, where the book can be seen.

SOME seventy new subscribers have been added to THE TRIBUNE's list during the past week. They come from all parts of the adjoining district. All our agents and old subscribers are requested to help on the good work and send in new names. We expect another hundred next week. Business men, who desire to reach the public, will do well to make use of our advertising columns.

WRECKED.—The Schr Belle, of Hamilton Capt Farington owner, left Oswego last Monday with a cargo of coal for the Rathbun Company, but experiencing the heavy gale of Monday night was wrecked on the west side of Indian Point. The cargo is insured, but there is no insurance on the vessel. The schooner had only been out of the shipyard for a few days having been recently caulked and put in good order. Thus ends the career of another of the Bay of Quinte vessels.

DRY KILNS.—The new dry kilns will soon be completed, and are pronounced by experts to be in the completeness and convenience of their equipments, among the first on the continent. The new arrangements will effect great saving in the handling of lumber, and as there will be no limit to the amount that can be dried, the Rathbun Company will be enabled to vastly increase the output from the sash and door factory, the demands on which they cannot at present meet.

FANCY POULTRY.—Mr. R. H. Trimble, of Deseronto, well known as an enterprising importer and breeder of fancy poultry, recently shipped fifteen fine fowls to a gentleman at Bradock, Pennsylvania. They were placed in comfortable quarters for their journey, being placed in two neat canvas coops ingeniously fitted with feed bags, water dishes, &c. Mr. T. has received word from the consignee of their safe arrival in first-class order after three days journey. The price obtained for the lot was $75.00, or $5.00 each delivered at the express office in Deseronto.

MODEL CITIZEN.—Mr. Chas. Larin, of the City Hotel, Montreal, so well known to dealers in horses in this section, is the happy father of twenty seven children. He and his wife weigh considerably over 400 pounds.

MR. F. C. WHITTON has had a large force employed for some time removing the stones from the farm between the boundary road and railway track. His efforts have been successful as the fields now present a respectable appearance.

It will be seen by advertisement that until further notice return tickets will be issued every Saturday at one fare from any station of the Napanee and Tamworth Railway. These tickets will be good to return by any regular train on the date of issue only.

CHEAPEST books at the TRIBUNE office.

VALUABLE INVENTION.—Mr. M. D. Campbell, of the Deseronto Flour Mills has, with much ingenuity, transformed the bran aspirator formerly in use into a new and valuable machine which renders unnecessary the dust rooms which are so undesirable in flour mills.

A correspondent of the Lachute Watchman has been doing the country from Napanee to Tamworth. He speaks of Napanee as a quiet old town, substantial and comfortable looking. The country north, he considered fine and the various villages smart.

NEW VENTURE.—Messrs. Dunning and Boulter, of Picton, have made arrangements for the shipment of five car-loads of apples to Glasgow, Scotland. This is their first venture in a business which must assume great proportions.

PICNIC.—A number of young folk had a pleasant picnic on Unger's Island last Thursday afternoon. The party was compelled by a passing shower to adjourn to the hospitable residence and grounds of Mr. T. Butler, where a very pleasant evening's amusement followed.

THE assistant inspector of post-offices and R. Q. Carter Esq., assistant general manager of the N. T. & Q. Ry., have been going over the line making arrangements for the carriage of the mails by rail. Two mails a day over the line would be a boon to the public.

THE fields of golden grain now present a grand spectacle to the admirer of nature. Farmers have had fine weather for getting in crops, which are turning out very well. There will be no excuse this season for any farmer being without a crop of THE TRIBUNE.

INSANE.—Mrs. Jean Gatten having been pronounced insane, an order was issued by the proper authorities for her removal to Belleville gaol for safe keeping. Her insanity has been caused by the worry and anxiety of her husband's prolonged illness which has preyed on her mind.

CRICKET.—A cricket club was organized a few weeks ago, and in order to work up an enthusiasm in this the noblest of all games, the members have challenged the Picton Club for a friendly match which will take place in Picton-to-day (Thursday). We trust our boys will give a good account of themselves.

SCARLET FEVER.—Scarlet fever which has been so long prevalent in neighboring towns and villages has reached Deseronto and there are now many cases in town. It is generally of a mild character but there have been some cases of a malignant type. Mr. C. Goodenough lost a fine little boy, nine years of age, after one day's illness.

PLEASANT PARTY.—A pleasant party was held at Mr. B. Lindsay's the other evening in honor of the anniversary of Mr. W. P. Parry's birthday. There was a firespread, a large party, letters of apology from absent friends and after supper the usual toasts and speeches. Arrangements were made for a torchlight procession with 24 torches but the band failed to connect much to the disappointment of the enthusiastic friends. After singing "Hail, Jolly good fellow," the company dispersed wishing William many returns of the day. So say we all.

CENTENNIAL.—The Mohawk nation will celebrate the hundredth anniversary of their landing on the Tyendinaga Reserve by a grand celebration in the grounds near the Lower Church, on Thursday, Sept. 4th. The following gentlemen will be present and deliver addresses:—John White, M. P., W. P. Hudson, M. P. P., and Alex. Robertson, M. P.; Dr. Canniff, Toronto; W. Kirby, Niagara; A. Ford, Belleville; Dr. Rutan, Napanee; Rev. G. A. Anderson, Penetanguishene; Rev. E. H. M. Baker, Tyendinaga; Rev. T. G. Porter, Rev. J. C. Ash, and L. A. Rolerts, Shannonville; Chief Sampson Green and Ex-Chief W. J. M. Hill.

Reserve. Platforms will be erected and string bands furnished. The Deseronto Cornet Band will be in attendance. Meals will be furnished at 20 cents, admission to grounds 10cts. An energetic committee is making all necessary arrangements and the event will most certainly attract an immense number of visitors from all sections of Central Ontario.

ROBERT CONLEY.

Deseronto, July 16th, 1884.

WARREN LELAND,

whom everybody knows as the successful manager of the

Largest Hotel Enterprises

of America, says that while a passenger from New York on board a ship going around Cape Horn, in the early days of emigration to California, he learned that one of the officers of the vessel had cured himself, during the voyage, of an obstinate disease by the use of

Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Since then Mr. LELAND has recommended Ayer's Sarsaparilla in all cases of skin diseases, and he has never yet heard of its failure to effect a radical cure.

Some years ago one of Mr. LELAND's farm laborers bruised his leg. Owing to the bad state of his blood, an ugly scrofulous swelling or lump appeared on the injured limb. Mordant itching of the skin, with burning and darting pains through the lump, made life almost intolerable. The leg became enormously enlarged, and running ulcers formed, discharging great quantities of extremely offensive matter. No treatment was of any avail until the man, by Mr. LELAND's direction, was supplied with AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, which allayed the pain and irritation, healed the sores, removed the swelling, and completely restored the limb to use.

Mr. LELAND has personally used

for Rheumatism, with entire success; and, after careful observation, declares that, in his belief, there is no medicine in the world equal to it for the cure of Liver Disorders, Gout, the effects of high living, hot Rheum, Sores, Eruptions, and all the various forms of blood diseases.

We have Mr. LELAND's permission to invite all who may desire further evidence in regard to the extraordinary curative powers of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA to see him personally either at his mammoth Ocean Hotel, Long Branch, or at the popular Leland Hotel, Broadway, 71th and 28th Streets, New York.

Mr. LELAND's extensive knowledge of the good done by this unexcelled purifier of blood, enables him to give inquiries much valuable information.
